Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Due to the Summer Season I have been slow in reading your books you recently sent to me. I did read Whitewash and have started Whitewash II. There is, as you know, a massive amount of information in your work. For myself, a casual student, sometimes I feel overwhelmed by what sometimes seems like obscure and unimportant details. But I guess to know what happened - you must consider every detail, before you discount it. I have also noticed many of the more recent Author's have used your discoveries, almost word for word.

I have every intention of ordering your book Oswald in New Orleans; however I just purchased R. Grodens Photographic Book The Killing of A President. My wife (bless her heart) has put an "Investigation Freeze" on any more purchases until I get caught up.

AGAIN, I SURE WAS COMFORTABLE THINKING OSWALD ACTED ALONE. NOW, WHEN PEOPLE SEE MY 25 BOOKS AND AS MANY VIDEO TAPES - THEY ASKED ME: "WELL, WHO DID IT?" MY REPLY NOW IS: "I DON'T KNOW YET."

THANK YOU FOR LISTENING TO MY LOW KEY AND NAIVE RAMBLINGS.

PEACE & BEST WISHES

Greg Raser
